

About Arcanum

THE INTELLIGENCE BEHIND HIGH-STAKES DECISIONS

Since its founding in 2006, Arcanum's leadership has emanated from senior American, British and French intelligence officials. Arcanum is a strategic intelligence company that provides services to sovereign governments and multinational corporations.

Arcanum's team includes experts from intelligence, law enforcement, military, diplomacy and legal backgrounds, with in-depth knowledge required to operate globally and discreetly on the largest multi-jurisdictional cases. In addition, Arcanum has exceptional intellectual resources with an executive leadership team that consists of senior leaders from the world's most powerful intelligence and law enforcement agencies, including the U.S., U.K. and France.

Arcanum's solutions enable clients to create effective decision making processes built on accurate and actionable intelligence data.
