June 3, 2013

Brigadier General Joseph DiBartolomeo to Serve as Director of Special Operations and Irregular Warfare for Arcanum

Zurich/London/Washington, DC – Arcanum, a strategic global intelligence firm and an RJI Capital company, announced today that Brigadier General Joseph DiBartolomeo has joined Arcanum as Director of Special Operations and Irregular Warfare.

“Brigadier General DiBartolomeo’s expertise on strategic issues will be a veritable asset to our company,” said Ron Wahid, CEO of RJI Capital Company, the parent company of Arcanum. “We are honored to have General DiBartolomeo – with his illustrious career and experience in defense – join our team.”

Brigadier General DiBartolomeo comes to Arcanum with over thirty years of service in the US Army, in which he has served in several high-level positions: as Deputy Commanding General of the Army’s Special Forces Command, as Commander of the Combined Joint Special Operations Task Force in Herzegovina, and most recently as the Deputy Commander of the Army Special Forces Command. He has also been the recipient of a number of awards and decorations in recognition for his outstanding service to the US Army, including the Legion of Merit, the Armed Forces Expeditionary Medal, the Global War on Terrorism Service Medal and the Humanitarian Service Medal.
