

TAREK SHERAZEE

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT & CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER

Tarek Sherazee is responsible for all areas of operational management for the company on a worldwide basis. He reports directly to the Chairman, and develops and implements quality management and capability building processes with a results-oriented approach. He is a key member of the Executive Leadership team responsible for developing overall strategy and implementation to ensure that the vision of executive leadership is underpinned by robust business plans and supporting infrastructure. In addition, he plays a key role in client development, generating new and sustainable streams of income and identifying business development opportunities.

A management and strategy consultant by background, Mr. Sherazee has over 20 years of experience working for leading consulting firms and multinationals. His professional experience has spanned across Europe, North America, Latin America, Middle East and Asia/Pacific.

Prior to joining Arcanum, he was Managing Consultant at PA Consulting where he specialized in business transformation, developing new propositions (M&A, Corporate Strategy, Innovation Strategy) and growth strategy implementation for multinational corporations. His clients included GSK, Unilever, Merck and Hershey, amongst others.

Previously, he gained operational experience as Head of Strategy for The Co-operative Group and as Global Strategy Director for Costa Coffee, developing and implementing strategies and target operating models that increased growth and profitability for both organizations.

He has held a number of high-level positions in other financial institutions, including at VIA International and European Bank for Reconstruction and Development where he managed the Strategic Planning Department. He started his consulting career at Coopers & Lybrand as a Senior Consultant.

From 1985 to 1995, he was an Officer in the Royal Marines and Royal Marines Reserves.

He is based in the Company's London offices.
